

Dialectic on the Survival of a Battery Doll. Exposing the effects of Anxiety and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), in a state of fear. It is the reality of PTSD but from the experience of a woman. Readers will staggeringly face a raw condition of heart and mind, based on individual and interpersonal insecurities, and stemming from an eventual exposure to narcissistic personality disorder and misogyny. It is a modern day survival story where the current theme, in an employment and socially driven society, is one unsympathetic to the ordeal of mental health.
