

Three months after a brutal battle at Peris, Adam Yuga, Lochlan Dâ€™Bideshi, and their rebel fleet are embroiled in a new conflict. But things arenâ€™t going well. Even with Lockâ€™s homeship, Ashwina, at the head of the fleet, the Protectorate forces are adapting to their tactics. Before long, two devastating blows send the ragtag rebels on the run. But the greatest threat may come from within. Since the battle at Peris, Protectorate loyalist Isaac Sinderâ€™s determination to eliminate the rebel fleet has only intensifiedâ€”along with his ambition. The Protectorate is decaying, and itâ€™s clear to Isaac that only he can save it, by any means necessary. As the situation worsens for the rebels, the strain begins to tell on everyone. But more than exhaustion grows within Adam. Something alien has started to change him. Lochlan fights to hold on, but even he may not be able to follow Adam down the dark road ahead. As Isaacâ€™s obsession turns to insanity, it becomes evident that more sinister plans than his are at work. Bound together by threads of fate and chance, Adam and Lochlan turn their eyes toward a future that may tear them apartâ€”if theyâ€™re lucky enough to survive it at all.
